

Julie Lindsay

Educational Technology Specialist

Head of Technology,
International School Dhaka, Bangladesh

Email: julie@lindsayonline.net

Digital Portfolio: <http://www.lindsayonline.net>

EDUCATION

---

- 2005 (to be completed in May) The George Washington University, Washington DC
- Master of Arts, Educational Technology Leadership
- 1996-1997 The University of Melbourne Melbourne, Australia
- Graduate Diploma in Computer Education
- 1988-1995 LaTrobe University Melbourne, Australia
- Master of Arts, Music (by research)
Topic: "Analytical approaches to jazz polyphony with special reference to the use of pitch-class set theory in the works of Toshiko Akiyoshi and Phil Woods."
- 1986 - 1987 LaTrobe University Melbourne, Australia
- Bachelor of Arts, Honours (Music)
- 1983 The University of Melbourne Melbourne, Australia
- Diploma in Education
- 1979 - 1981 LaTrobe University Melbourne, Australia
- Bachelor of Arts, (Music major)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

---

- August 2003 to present International School Dhaka Bangladesh
- Head of Technology, IBO Coordinator Homo Faber
International Baccalaureate
Middle Years Programme: Technology
Diploma Programme: Information Technology in a Global Society
- 2001 - 2003 Gulf English School Kuwait
- Information and Communication Technology Educator
Subjects taught: Year 7 & 8 ICT, IGCSE Computer Studies & IGCSE Information Technology

- 2000 – 2001 English School for Girls Kuwait
- ICT Coordinator
Subjects taught: Years 3-9 ICT, Years 10-12 IGCSE Computer Studies
- 1998 - 2000 Simba School Ndola, Zambia
- Computer Studies, ICT Educator
Subjects taught: Grades 10, 11 and 12 Computer Studies, including IGCSE
- 1988 – 1997 Eltham College Melbourne, Australia
- Music Educator
Subjects taught: Years 7 – 12 music, including music technology
1996 NEITA (National Excellence In Teaching Award) from ASG (Australian Scholarships Group). Nominated by students and parents at Eltham College.
- 1984 – 1987 Kingspark High School Melbourne, Australia
Brunswick East High School Melbourne, Australia
- Music Educator
- Relevant Tertiary Positions Held (on a part time basis):
- 1993 – 1997 Northern Melbourne Institute of TAFE Australia
- Lecturer in Jazz Studies
  - Lecturer in Music: Technology and Multimedia

PRESENTATIONS and STAFF PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT DELIVERY

---

- 2004 'Fostering an Online Learning Community for the Development of Student Digital Portfolios'
1. IBO Asia Pacific Conference, Mumbai India
2. A Global Gallery presentation at ISTE's NECC 2004, New Orleans.
The paper and presentation addressed the theory and development of online learning communities and explored the Grade 9 digital portfolio curriculum at the International School Dhaka which uses weblogs for discussion forums and portfolio publication.
- 2004 Curriculum Approach to Technology Integration (CATI)
Development of a staff professional development program that delivers just in time training to help educators integrate technology into their teaching.
- 2002 'An Introduction to Telecollaborative Projects'
Paper presented at Cross-School PD Day, Kuwait.
'Digital Teaching Portfolios'
Paper presented at Professional Educators Association of Kuwait Conference (PEAK).
- 2001 'Telecommunications and the Internet: Telecollaborative Projects'
Presentation to staff at The American International School, Kuwait, on learning circles and international collaboration.
'Integrating Technology and the Internet into the Curriculum: Strategies and Resources'. Presentation and workshop to Gulf English School staff.
- 1997 and 1998 'Telecommunications and the Internet'
Design and delivery of staff professional development sessions.

- 1996            'Cyberschool: Integrated Curriculum on the Net'.
Paper presented at 'Computer Education Group of Victoria' (CEGV) Annual Conference.
- 1992            'The Cutting Edge - Music Technology in Today's Curriculum'.
Paper presented at 'ASME IX National Conference' (Australian Society for Music Education).

EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

---

- 2003 - 2004    Weblogs and Blogging: Instigation and development of staff and student weblogs at ISD. This included running staff induction sessions and developing the student digital portfolio curriculum
International School's Cyberfair: Platinum Winning Entry in the Environmental Awareness Category with Poribesh Bachan: Environmental Awareness in Bangladesh, created by Grade 8 students.
- 2002 - 2003    Staff Professional Development Representative: Gulf English School.
- 2000 - 2002    Kuwait representative for iEARN, international collaborative projects and learning circle participation.
- 1998 - 2000    Internet Club - extracurricular activity where students participated in international telecommunication projects (such as iEARN Learning Circles) and developed web page authoring skills.
School Magazine - extracurricular activity using desk-top publishing facilities to produce the "Jungle Beat" school magazine each term.
- 1997            Convenor of the 'Web Page Development Group', a staff and student committee with the aim of improving the school's home page.
- 1996            Initiation and coordination of Eltham College's entry into the International School's Cyberfair. Web site 'Environmental Awareness on the Urban Fringe' gained an international award - 4th place.
- 1993 - 1997    Establishment and production of a weekly, student-based radio program, 'Voices of Eltham College', presented live from the studios at Plenty Valley FM. Awarded Gommie in 1995 for 'Most Popular Educational Program'.
- 1991 - 1993    Conception, planning and coordination of 'Music Technology Week' involving staff and students from many schools. The program included the 'Student Composition Talent Search', workshops and demonstrations of the use of technology in music for commercial and avant-garde styles, staff in-services and concerts with professional musicians and students.